Evening entertainment at Caister

Save some energy for the evening's exciting and varied programme of professional entertainment. There are dazzling shows, live music, comedy and dance floor action perfect for all the family. As the evening stretches out, the holiday atmosphere picks up. Time to put on your party gear, perhaps order your favourite cocktail, and you're ready to have another great night. Plus top touring acts throughout the summer.

Mash & Barrel has been specially designed and created for Haven. The feel is smart and contemporary and the atmosphere is very relaxed and family friendly, making a thoroughly enjoyable experience for all. There's a big bar area, serving great beers, wines and cocktails. An all-day menu serves snacks and family meals. There's also a carvery serving popular traditional roasts. A lounge area with big sofas is the perfect spot to catch up with the sporting action on TV. Lovely terraced area.

Caister has several excellent public houses within walking distance: The "Centurion" to the north and "The Never Turn Back" to the south to mention just two, both offer some entertainment at times during the Summer Season. Information supplied by Haven, subject to change depending on demand.

Haven Holidays charges to use 'ALL' their fantastic facilities:

These special charges for Fanfare Caravans only to use these facilities £70 per week and £35 for a short-break, charges are per unit (up to 6 persons) and not per person, applies to any time from Easter to October 31st. This is an excellent deal, however you must purchase your family pass in order to enjoy all the Haven facilities. There are times when not every venue will necessarily be open.
