Important information, please read carefully. We no longer offer a Cancellation Plan Scheme.

It is with regret that Blue Riband Holidays have had to take the decision that we can no longer offer our cancellation plan scheme, something that we have done for several years. Unfortunately it has become financially untenable, every year more and more of our clients have opted out of the scheme for one reason or another, in many cases it has been because they have their own travel insurance, others have said "we don't need the cancellation plan" or "we'll risk it" or "we have been coming for years and never had to cancel". So for a variety of reasons the amount of money raised to cover genuine cancellation refunds has dwindled to such an extent that it is no longer viable to offer the service.

Many of our customers have their own travel insurance, often included with bank accounts etc. We strongly advise all our customers to obtain travel insurance if they don't already have this in place.

If you do have to cancel your holiday it is in your own interests to give us as much notice as possible. This will give us the best opportunity to re-let the accommodation, if we are able to successfully re-let then we would refund the balance element of your booking (where the balance has been paid).

Deposit payments are none refundable.
